

PROFESSOR EMILY HOWARTH EARNS NV REGENTS AWARD TEACHING AWARD RECOGNIZES OUTSTANDING EDUCATORS

The Nevada System of Higher Education's Board of Regents has chosen Professor Emily Howarth for the statewide 2015 NSHE Regents Teaching Award. Howarth, a tenured professor of Computer Information Technology, was nominated by her peers for the honor. Her creative teaching techniques have been successful in preparing students for jobs in the growing field of Applied Industrial Technology.

READ MORE.

VETERANS CLUB TO LEAD SUICIDE AWARENESS MARCH SATURDAY, MAY 2, 10 A.M. FROM CARSON STREET TO WNC

Western Nevada College Student Veterans invite the entire community to take part in a Veterans Suicide Walk to honor and remember the many veterans who have suffered and/or taken their own lives. The walk will begin in the parking lot area south of Bully's Restaurant, and will continue approximately 1.3 miles up West College Parkway from the intersection of North Carson Street and West College Parkway to the WNC main campus.

READ MORE.

Find us online:

Student News

Summer/Fall Registration Begins Soon

Female Veterans Event on Tap: 4/17

Vote Now for 2015-2016 ASWN Leaders

On Campus

Faculty Members Merit Tenure

Easter Fiesta, Carson City Campus - 4/4

Arid Farming Presentation at WNC Fallon

Small Farm Website Seminar on Tap

Trike-a-Thon Raises Money for St. Jude's

Arts and Culture

"Always Lost" to Exhibit at Legislature

Guitarist George Sakellariou Concert: 4/2

'Music Man' Tickets on Sale

Athletics

Follow the Wildcats Online

Baseball Play-by-Play Announcer on Air

Baseball Program Earns 400th Win

Softball Glow Run Success

Practice Yoga with the Wildcats